This action was taken in response to the identification of an investor protection problem related to financial intermediary operations involving the solicitation and sale of structured bonds. Ryuichi Mitsuoka, Yukimitsu Sanada, and Ayako Kobayashi were unaware of the facts surrounding this violation until it came to light due to issues with the Bank's organizational structure, including the lack of a system in place to obtain information on actual sales. However, they had been regularly cautioning the Board of Directors and other relevant parties of the importance of compliance with laws and regulations.

After the administrative action was issued, the Bank established the Quality Improvement Committee to discuss the progress of the business improvement plan, ensure thorough compliance with laws and regulations, and make appropriate proposals for measures to prevent recurrence, thereby fulfilling our responsibilities.
